1. In 1911, less than a decade after the Wright Brothers achieved the first heavier than air powered flight, the airplane would become the fastest means of transport of written matter, packages and passengers. In 1913, what was the name of the woman who became the first woman airmail pilot?

2. The Gossamer Albatross II weighs ________ pounds and has a wingspan of ________ feet.

3. How long did it take the Taylor Aerocar III to transform from automobile to aircraft?

4. Aboard the Boeing Model 80A-1, American’s first stewardesses shared common training as ________________ to alleviate passengers’ fears.

5. The Lockheed Model 10-E Electra was named after a star. In which constellation is this star located?

6. In 1928, Amelia Earhart became the first woman to fly across the Atlantic Ocean in a Fokker F.VLLB-3m. How long was this flight?

7. In operation since 1935, Air Station Port Angeles is the US Coast Guard’s oldest operational air station. Their first insignia featured a character nicknamed “ ____________ __________.”

8. The Sikorsky HH-52A Seaguard helicopter was designed to operate from land, water, snow and virtually any other surface with ease. This amphibious helicopter was involved in many rescues, including the rescue of children, so oftentimes pilots kept this in the cockpit. What do you spy in the HH-52A?
   (Hint: Look at the passenger side window)

9. The Blackbird M/D-21 has the ability to fly at speeds of more than Mach ______ and flies at over _________ feet.